

How to use beamer

Ian Kirby

Spring 2022

Nice frame

Here's what happens when write on a slide.

Frame transitions

When you make transition text, the PDF that you generate actually includes

- ▶ This is list of items

Frame transitions

When you make transition text, the PDF that you generate actually includes

- ▶ This is list of items
- ▶ This an item in the list

Frame transitions

When you make transition text, the PDF that you generate actually includes

- ▶ This is list of items
- ▶ This an item in the list
 - ▶ Hey look I hid this one!

Frame transitions

When you make transition text, the PDF that you generate actually includes

- ▶ This is list of items
- ▶ This an item in the list
 - ▶ Hey look I hid this one!
 - ▶ A nice item

Frame transitions

When you make transition text, the PDF that you generate actually includes

- ▶ This is list of items
- ▶ This an item in the list
- ▶ Hey where'd they go?

Frame transitions

When you make transition text, the PDF that you generate actually includes

- ▶ This is list of items
- ▶ This an item in the list
- ▶ Hey where'd they go?
- ▶ Look, I brought a friend with me!
- ▶ Hi, friend!

Frame transitions

When you make transition text, the PDF that you generate actually includes

- ▶ This is list of items
- ▶ This an item in the list
- ▶ Hey where'd they go?
- ▶ Look, I brought a friend with me!
- ▶ Hi, friend!

(1) Look, I can also do it with a gloss!

Frame transitions

When you make transition text, the PDF that you generate actually includes

- ▶ This is list of items
- ▶ This an item in the list
- ▶ Hey where'd they go?
- ▶ Look, I brought a friend with me!
- ▶ Hi, friend!

(1) Look, I can also do it with a gloss!

- a. Sag mein-e kind-er, dass ich sie lieb-e tell.IMP my-PL kid-PL that I them love-PRES.3SG
'Tell my children that I love them'

Doing cool stuff with `\<onslide<n->\}` and
`\only<n>\}`

You can do a lot of cool stuff with `\<onslide<n->\}` and `\only<n>\}` . For example...

Doing cool stuff with `\<onslide<n->\}` and
`\only<n>\}`

It's gone!

What if I wanted to have some part of my text transition to something else. For example...

Doing cool stuff with `\<onslide<n->\}` and
`\only<n>\}`

What if I wanted to have some part of my text transition to something else. For example...

We have no cats, Kathleen.

Doing cool stuff with `\<onslide<n->\}` and
`\only<n>\}`

What if I wanted to have some part of my text transition to something else. For example...

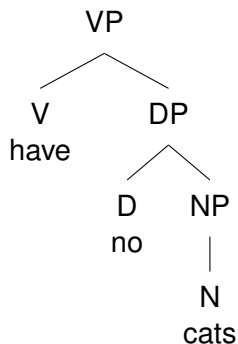

We have no cats, Kathleen.

Doing cool stuff with `\<onslide<n->\}` and
`\only<n>\}`

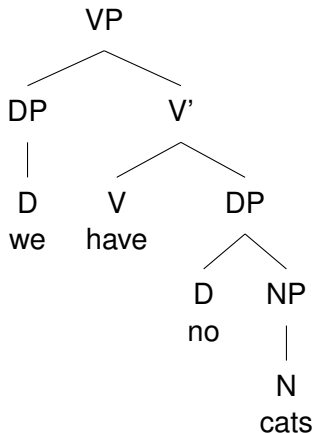

What if I wanted to have some part of my text transition to something else. For example...

We have no cats, Kathleen. [wi: hæv nou k^hæts k^hæθli:n]

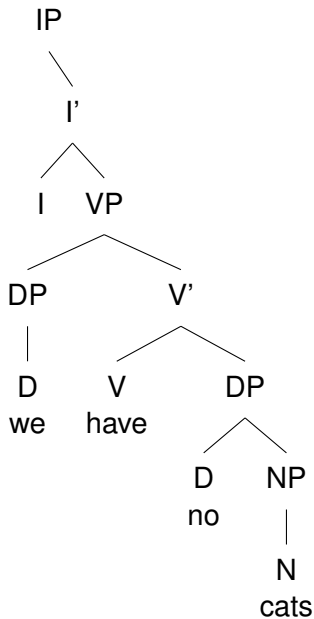

Here's a cool thing you can do...

Here's a cool thing you can do...

Here's a cool thing you can do...

Here's a cool thing you can do...

